AUTUMN WINTER 2017

Suiting is our heroine of the season; seventies-inspired chilli pops with double-breasted detailing and rich plum tones provide a seasonal update to failsafe black. Muted Prince of Wales check gives masculine tailoring a feminine twist while sumptuous crushed velvet in lipstick red and metallic feature a statement wide leg.

The dream coat becomes a reality this Autumn Winter with colour-block statement scarlet, stand-out checks, sugary pastels and hue of the season, Nicoll Blue. The long-line camel coat offers an understated alternative.

Velvet features heavily throughout from dresses, blazers and more wrapped in the decadent fabric. A Rossetti-inspired devoré dress peppered with vintage petals, heritage sleeves and pretty ruffle detail gives a feminine take on the trend. The perennial classic black tuxedo is given an update with a silky-soft finish, long-line blazer and wide leg.

Must have motif knitwear is styled with delicate jacquard flowers and beautifully embroidered mesh. Traditional Fair Isle pops with flashes of colour; shocking pink, true blue and rainbow hues that breathe life into our favourite winter warmer.

Sleeve details give a seasonal update to wardrobe staples. Feminine flute, trumpet and ruffled styles revive floral blouses, dresses and knitwear.

Party wear makes a bold statement from prom-style dresses in black feather and magenta jacquard to chilli red lace, all over sequin and floor-sweeping embroidery every trend is covered and occasion catered for.

Jewels and statement finishes touches complete the look from jewelled bug broaches, bold drop earrings and vibrant colour pop necklaces featuring in a myriad of colourways. While the must-have accessory of the season - the cape is showcased with sequin, feather detail and lace designs adding a vintage feel to seasonal dressing.
